Credentials

Press, radio, television, and photographers' credentials can be obtained by contacting Jeremy Wu in the Sports Information Office. All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials will be left at the Galen Center ticket office in the northwest corner on Figueroa and Jefferson Ave. unless other arrangements are made.

Facilities / Parking

Media can use Parking Structure 2 (PS2) just south of the Galen Center and enter off Flower Street. Please present parking attendant with media identification to park for free. Non-media guests will be charged $10 to park on campus or in the parking structures.

Galen Center Directions

From the 110 Harbor North/South: (North) Take Exposition and go through the 36th Street light, keep left and go under freeway bridge. Cross Flower Street and at the light turn right onto Figueroa. Turn right on Jefferson and right on Flower to enter Parking Structure 2 (PS2). You can also turn left on Flower after going under the 110 and go to Parking Structure 1 (PS1). (South) Take Adams to Figueroa and turn left on Jefferson. Turn right on Flower and enter either parking structure.

From the 10 East/West: Exit Vermont or Hoover and go south (right/left). Turn left on Jefferson Blvd. and right on Flower Street to enter Parking Structures 1 and 2 (PS2 is closer to Galen Center and located next to the Radisson Hotel).

Telephones

One courtesy phone line will be available for all visiting radio crews. Any additional requests should be coordinated through the USC Sports Information Office.

Wireless Access

Full wireless access is available at the Galen Center for members of the media. A media section is available in the southwest corner for all media.

Interview Policy

To arrange an interview with coaches or athletes, please contact the Sports Information Office at least one day in advance. Check with the USC Sports Information Office regarding the team practice schedule. Players can be made available after practice sessions at Galen Center. The head coach is generally available by phone. If you would like to reach a member of the team on the road, please contact the Sports Information Office at least two days in advance.

Postgame Interviews

After the 10-minute "cooling-off" period, visiting players and coaches will be available outside their locker room located in the east tunnel. USC head coach Mick Haley and players will be available in the Galen Center classroom. USC SID Jeremy Wu will escort any interested media to the press conference area.

Broadcasting Arrangements

Requests for broadcasting privileges and contracts should be addressed to USC Sports Information, Heritage Hall 103, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0601. Spotters and/or statisticians are available upon request.

Mick Haley

Head Coach • 14th Season at USC • 38th Overall Season • Ball State '65

Mick Haley is in his 14th season (38th overall) as head coach at USC and continues to add to the rich history and heritage of one of the most successful women's volleyball programs in the nation.

At the helm for the Trojans, Haley has guided his teams to two national championships (2002 and 2003), six NCAA national semifinal appearances (2002, 2003, 2004, 2007, 2010 and 2011) and 13 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances. In those 13 years, USC has received a final ranking in the top five, seven times under Haley.

In 2013, the Women of Troy advanced to the NCAA regional final for the fourth straight year in the team's 23rd consecutive appearance in the championships. USC was ranked No. 6 in the final poll followed a third-place finish in the Pac-12 (16-4) with an overall mark of 29-6. The Trojans boasted the Pac-12's Freshman of the Year for the second straight season (Ebony Nwanebu) and Natalie Hagglund took home the league's Libero of the Year award for the third straight season. Hagglund, outside hitter Samantha Bricio, and middle blocker Alexis Olgard were each named All-Americans with Nwanebu whose first-team nod also made her the AVCA National Freshman of the Year.

He has posted an impressive overall record of 343-76 (.819) while going 189-53 (.781) in Pac-12 Conference matches.

On his personal mantle, Haley is a member of the AVCA, the Junior College Coaches', and the Ball State Hall of Fames. He was named the 2011 Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year; the first time at USC that he earned that honor and in 2003, he led the Women of Troy to a second-consecutive NCAA Championship - the program's sixth title overall and third NCAA crown.

Haley guided the 2003 squad to a perfect 35-0 record (only the fourth team to ever accomplish the feat at the time). For these accomplishments, he earned the most prestigious honor among collegiate coaches and something that had eluded him in previous years of his collegiate coaching career as he was honored as the AVCA Division I Coach of the Year.

In the process, Haley put together a then-NCAA-record 52-match winning streak, dating from Nov. 8, 2002, to Sept. 11, 2004. During the impressive streak, the Women of Troy compiled a 156-14 set record (91.8%).

As a two-time national championship head coach at Texas and four-year United States National Team coach, Haley took the helm of the Trojan program at the start of the 2001 season. He brought a tradition of excellence as one of the elite coaches in the game with him to a University with a rich tradition of its own.

In his 37 years as a collegiate head coach, Haley boasts a 1,116-264-1 (.809) career record as a women's head coach and an 865-213 (.802) mark in 30 years at the Division I level. He ranks seventh among the NCAA's winningest active coaches according to win percentage (.809) and fourth for all active coaches by victories (865). He owns a 339-63 (.843) career record against conference opponents while competing in the Southwest, Big 12, Pac-10, and Pac-12 conferences. After winning the Pac-10 title in 2002 and 2003, and the inaugural Pac-12 title in 2011, he now boasts 17 career conference titles.

Along with his men's coaching record, Haley is 1,213-296-1 (.804) during his tremendous career that includes four NCAA Division I women's national championships and six overall junior college national titles. He recorded his personal 1,000th win on Nov. 25, 2005, with USC's 3-0 win at home against California.

Haley accepted the USC coaching position in June of 1999, to replace Lisa Love, who guided the Women of Troy for 10 seasons, but did not assume the position until he had fulfilled his responsibilities with the USA Women's National Volleyball Team.

Following the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, Haley joined the 2000 USC squad midway through the collegiate season, but allowed Interim Head Coach Jerritt Elliott to complete the year. From the bench, Haley served as a mentor to the team and its coaching staff as the Trojans reached the NCAA championship semifinals for the first time in 15 years.

Haley officially took the reins of the program in 2001 and found his first season to be bittersweet. The immensely talented Women of Troy dominated competition through the regular season and fell one match short of consecutive conference titles. The Trojans had their sights set on the national championship and breezed through the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament without losing a single game. But the 2001 Women of Troy, who were looking for that return trip to the national semifinal, fell one match short, as they lost, 3-2, to Arizona in the NCAA Regional Championships. USC finished the season with a 25-4 overall record, a second-place finish in the Pac-10 (16-2), and a No. 5 AVCA final ranking.

The disappointment of the 2001 season only fueled the fire for Haley and his team as they began a dominant two-year run. His 2002 squad dropped only one match throughout the regular season to conference rival Stanford and claimed sole possession of the Pac-10 title for the first time with a 17-1 mark.

USC only got stronger as the 2002 season continued and swept its first four NCAA opponents before they defeated Florida in the semifinals, 3-1. A rematch was set with the rival Cardinal, and this time the Trojans came out on top. USC beat Stanford, 3-1, to win the program's fifth national title and first since 1981. With the win, Haley became just the second head coach in NCAA history to win a national championship at two universities.

The experiences and success gained in 2002 were only improved upon in 2003. USC's dominating performance throughout the season drew comparisons to the greatest teams of all time. In addition to the NCAA Championship and a second-straight Pac-10 conference title, the Women of Troy received a program-first four All-American honors (including three first teamers) and seven All-Pac-10 selections (including five first teamers). With the accolades, Haley added four players (April Ross, Emily Adams, Bibiana Candelas, and Keao Burdine) to his list of more than 30 All-Americans. Ross was also named Pac-10 Player of the Year (Haley's 13th) and was honored with the Honda Award as the nation's top volleyball player.

Haley also recorded some notable wins in 2003, including his 200th career conference victory and 50th Pac-10 victory in a win over California on Nov. 15, and his 600th career NCAA victory in a win over Washington State on Nov. 1.

2003 also saw Haley inducted into the University of Texas Women's Athletics Hall of Honor on Nov. 14, in a ceremony held in Austin, Texas. He was also awarded the Ball State Lifetime Volleyball Coaching Achievement Award in a ceremony held in Muncie, Ind.

The 2004 club went 23-6 as the program made its third straight NCAA Final Four appearance. During the 2005 season, Haley registered his 900th collegiate win as a women's coach on Nov. 4 against Oregon State. His 2006 squad played the first match at the new Galen Center and later advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, he led the Women of Troy to another Final Four appearance on the heels of a 3-0 sweep in the Gainesville Regional final against his former Texas squad with USC barely missing a chance to play for the national title and finishing third in the nation.

With no seniors on the squad in 2008, the Women of Troy struggled during the season. USC, however, was ranked in the Top 10 for most of the year and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. It was another trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the 2009 squad as the team finished the season ranked No. 16 nationally with a solid 22-10 overall record.

The Women of Troy were able to make another stellar postseason run in 2010. Despite losing to Stanford, twice, during the regular season, USC shocked the Cardinal by rallying to win a five-set thriller in the NCAA Dayton Regional final to advance to the NCAA Final Four for the sixth time in 11 seasons and finished with a No. 3 national ranking.

In 2011, Haley led USC to its first back-to-back NCAA Final Four appearances since 2004, thanks to an epic run through the Honolulu Regional and two classic five-set wins over Hawai'i and Pepperdine. USC finished the season with its second-straight No. 3 national ranking, and won the inaugural Pac-12 Conference title with a 20-2 mark. Senior outside hitter Alex Jupiter became the school's first-ever AVCA National Player of the Year.

The Women of Troy received the No. 6 ranking in the final poll of 2012 and were 30-6 overall with a 15-5 mark in Pac-12 matches for third place. During the season, Haley surpassed Chuck Erbe (USC's first women's volleyball coach) in wins with the Trojans and guided USC to its 900th all-time victory. His squad produced two more All-American selections on the way to another NCAA regional final appearance.

Prior to his return to the collegiate scene, Haley made his mark on the international and Olympic stage. He completed his fourth season with the U.S. National Team in 2000. His squad earned a berth into the 2000 Olympics in Sydney by defeating Canada to win the Nike Americas' Volleyball Challenge (NORCECA). In Australia, the team surprised many by advancing to the semifinals before falling to Russia, 3-2, and Brazil, 3-0, in medal contention. The Americans, who were not favored to make the semifinals, much less push the powerful Russians to a fifth game, relinquished the bronze medal to Brazil with the loss and finished fourth overall; the highest U.S. finish since the Americans won the bronze medal in the 1992 Barcelona Olympics.

Haley joined the USA National Team in January of 1997. In his first season, he molded an entirely new squad into an international contender. The U.S. women went 16-13 in 1997, finished second at the NORCECA Zone Championship behind 1996 Olympic gold-medalist Cuba, and posted key victories over Canada, Germany, and the Dominican Republic. In 1998, the team opened the year 10-0 en route to a 31-30 mark, won the NORCECA Zonal Championship qualifier and the Canada Cup, with impressive wins over Italy, Peru, and Japan. 1999 began with much of the same success, as Haley's team swept the Dominican Republic to earn the bronze medal at the Pan American Games, and fell to Cuba in the final match of the Continental Championship. The performance secured a spot for the U.S. at the World Cup where the team posted a 3-8 record.

Before entering the international spotlight, Haley spent 17 successful seasons (1980-96) at Texas, where he was 522-137-1 overall, won two national championships, 13 Southwest Conference titles and earned 15 NCAA tournament berths.

His teams won the AIAW national title in 1981 with a 60-6-1 overall record, and the NCAA crown in 1988. After winning his second title, he was named the 1988 Volleyball Magazine National Coach of the Year. The 1988 championship squad is the only team to date to capture the NCAA title with a perfect 15-0 game record. Until 1995, it was also the only NCAA title claimed by a non-West Coast team.

If success was measured solely by the accolades earned by a coach's players, and the numbers were but a mere side note, Haley would sit comfortably among the nations best. In 17 years with the Longhorns, he coached 13 SWC Players of the Year and more than 20 All-Americans.

Prior to Texas, Haley coached at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., for seven seasons (1973-79). He first served as an instructor and intramural director. He then took the helm of the men's and women's varsity teams in 1973 and went 251-51 overall to lead his women's team to the national junior college title in 1978 and 1979. He also coached the Kellogg men to four national crowns during that time with a 97-32 record. In 1997, he was inducted into the Junior College Coaches Hall of Fame.

While at Kellogg, he also trained with the U.S. National Team and served as an assistant coach with the U.S. men's and women's programs.

As a setter at Ball State (1962-65), he helped lead the Cardinals to the 1964 and 1965 Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association titles. He was the MIVA's MVP in 1965 and made the All-MIVA second team in 1964. Haley earned his bachelor's degree in education from Ball State in 1965 and was inducted into the Ball State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984.

Haley received a master's degree in education in 1966 from Southern Illinois, where he started a men's volleyball club team.

A native of Angola, Indiana, Haley was a four-sport athlete at Angola High School where he played football, basketball, ran track, and baseball. He was later inducted into the Angola High School Hall of Fame.

Haley and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Halie, 25, and a son, Hunter, 26. Haley also has a son, Heath, 37, and a daughter, Heather, 42, from a previous marriage, and four grandchildren, Harrison, 14, Hayley, 12, Amelia, 5, and Michael, 3.

Shea McBrearty

Director of Operations • 2nd Season at USC

Shea McBrearty enters her first season USC's director of operations. She previously served as the Trojans' graduate manager for the 2013 season. McBrearty was officially hired on April 29, 2014.

McBrearty previously served as the assistant coach at Navarro College (Corsicana, Texas) and helped guide the Bulldogs to an 18-11 record in 2012. Her duties included game film analysis and scouting report preparation. McBrearty also served as Navarro's recruiting coordinator and was responsible for overall player development as well as the operations of the volleyball program. While McBrearty was a member of the Navarro staff, the Bulldogs had four all-conference players and one All-America nominee.

Before her time at Navarro College, McBrearty was a graduate assistant coach at Tarleton State for the 2011 season. The TexAnns went 20-14 to post their third 20-win season in four years and were 13-7 in conference matches to earn a spot in the Lone Star Conference tournament. Tarleton advanced to the tourney's semifinals and had two players named to the all-conference team.

McBrearty has served as a camp coordinator and camp coach at Tarleton State, and with the University of Texas. She was also the head coach of the Stephenville Junior Volleyball Club 15s in 2009.

As a player, McBrearty was a standout libero at Tarleton State and was selected for All-Lone Star Conference first-team honors as a senior in 2010. She was a four-year letterwinner (2007-10) with the TexAnns and is the school's record holder for career digs (1,847). McBrearty holds the top three of the top four single-season records for digs at Tarleton State (2008-10) and has two of the top five single-season averages for digs. As a senior, she also led her team in service aces with 39. Her career awards include CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-District honors, academic all-conference honors, and three selections to the Commissioner's Honor Roll. McBrearty served as the TexAnns' team captain for two years and was chosen as the squad's MVP as a senior. She was also active in student-athlete life as president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Council (2009-10).

In addition to her on-court achievements, McBrearty served as an adjunct faculty member at Navarro College where she taught a course in business with an emphasis on management and leadership. She has also appeared on camera during a term as an intern with Austin's CBS affiliate (KEYE-TV) and was a substitute teacher at James Bowie High School.

McBrearty graduated from Tarleton State summa cum laude with a bachelor of science in communications (2010) and was selected as that year's commencement speaker. She received her masters in management and leadership from TSU in 2011. McBrearty currently resides in Los Angeles.

Kennedy, a native of Honolulu, Hawai'i, coached for four seasons (2007-10) at Los Altos (Calif.) High School and led his team to CIF sectional playoff berths each year. He coached at the club level for two seasons as head coach for Eclipse Volleyball Club (Palo Alto, Calif.) 17's and guided the team to a regional championship in 2010.

He was a setter and team captain at Santa Clara (2004-07) where he received bachelor's degrees in biology and psychology. Kennedy earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of San Francisco in 2009.

Kennedy currently resides with his wife Alana in Culver City, Calif.

Abigail Wonnell

Athletic Trainer • 3rd Season at USC

Abigail Wonnell joined the USC Athletic Medicine staff in the summer of 2012 and begins her third season as the athletic trainer for the Women of Troy. Wonnell also serves as the trainer for the Trojans' sand volleyball and rowing squads.

Previously, Wonnell was an athletic trainer at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., where she served as an assistant trainer from 2009-12. Her primary assignment was with the baseball teams. While there, she also assisted with tennis, golf, lacrosse, football, basketball, and soccer.

Wonnell holds a master's degree from the University of Kentucky in Kinesiology and Health Promotion. While at UK, she was the head athletic trainer for the women's gymnastics team from 2006-08. She earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Florida in Applied Physiology & Kinesiology and was an athletic training student with the baseball, football, and swimming & diving teams from 2002-06.

Wonnell has been NATABOC (National Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Certification) certified since 2006.

Umberto Gatti

Graduate Manager • 3rd Season at USC

Umberto "Umbi" Gatti is in his first season as the graduate manager for the Women of Troy. He previously served for two years as an undergraduate team manager from 2012-13.

Gatti transferred from Wichita State and completed a bachelors degree at the Marshall School of Business. He is currently a student at the Annenberg School for Communication studying towards a master in communication management degree.

As a player, Gatti played middle blocker for Italy's Volley Altair Club as well as Volley Dueville. He also served as an assistant coach for his uncle's club Volley Altopiano. Gatti aspires to pursue a career in sport management when he completes his education.

Brent Metz

Strength and Conditioning Coach • 8th Season at USC

Brent Metz is in his eighth season as the strength and conditioning coach for the USC women's volleyball program. Based out of the Galen Center, Metz also works with the men's volleyball team and the men's and women's basketball teams.

Metz has worked with four volleyball Final Four teams while at USC (women's in 2007 and 2010 and men's in 2009 and 2011).

Previously, Metz was at the University of Texas and worked with the women's volleyball and football teams. During his time at Texas, he worked with seven volleyball All-Americans and 28 football players that went on to play in the NFL.

He served as a strength and conditioning intern at Fresno State for all 18 sports before his full-time position at Texas. Before arriving at Fresno State, Metz spent four years teaching and coaching at Everett Alvarez High School in Salinas, Calif.

Metz graduated from Colorado State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in wildlife biology and a master's in cross-cultural education. He spent five years as a biologist and conducted research for Predatory Bird Research Group at UC Santa Cruz.

Metz currently resides in Pasadena, Calif.

Mike Voight

Sports Psychologist

Mike Voight, PhD, is in his 17th season as the USC women's volleyball team's sport psychologist and team consultant. He aids the team with team building, leadership effectiveness, and mental toughness programs.

Voight's training regiment includes performance enhancement (strategies for improved preparation and execution) as well as team effectiveness meetings, follow-up, and accountability meetings.

Voight is an assistant professor in the physical education/human performance department at Central Connecticut State. Prior to his current position, he was a lecturer in the physical education and kinesiology departments at USC. He was a consultant for many teams at USC, including the volleyball, football, and basketball programs.

On the world stage, Voight participates in many national and international conferences, and utilizes his research to present application solutions for his field of study. He has many published articles in various sport psychology, sport science, and coaching journals. Voight is also the series editor for a complete line of mental toughness training books through Coaches Choice Publishing.

Jill McNitt-Gray

Biomechanics Consultant

Jill McNitt-Gray has served as a biomechanics consultant for the USC women's volleyball program since 1992. Her research focuses on the neuromuscular control and dynamics of human movements and aims to identify risk factors.

McNitt-Gray helps develop effective methods for performance enhancement for individuals with various ability levels and specializes in elite athletes.

She is a professor at USC in the kinesiology, biological sciences, and biomedical engineering departments. She is also the director of the Biomechanics Research Laboratory and is the founding director of a cross-cutting interdisciplinary graduate program.

McNitt-Gray was a member and captain of the field hockey and women's gymnastics teams at Miami University (Ohio), where she earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics and statistics. She returned to graduate school at North Carolina and Penn State and has been a consultant for many programs involving the U.S. Olympic Committee.

She is the mother of two children and married to Mike McNitt-Gray, a current professor at UCLA.

Sara Kim

Student Manager

Sara Kim is in her first year as a student manager for the Women of Troy. She is a sophomore at USC and is double-majoring in business administration and accounting.

Kim was an outside and opposite hitter for Oakdale High School in Oakdale, Calif., under head coach Shelli Ponce. She also ran for the track team, and played polo and tennis. Kim was also a hitter for Impact Volleyball Club under Teresa Williams and Rusty Fauchner in Escalon Calif.

After graduation, she hopes to pursue careers in public accounting and sports industry finance.

Heather Reitzfeld

Student Manager

Reitzfeld is a sophomore who is a member of USC's club volleyball team. She prepped at Culver City High School where she was an opposite hitter under head coach Joe Manzo. As a member of the Culver Volleyball Club, Reitzfeld played outside hitter under coaches Tanner Siegal and Eriko Gambol and helped her club to the semifinals of the 2013 Summer Soiree. She now serves as a coach for Culver VBC.

She is currently pursuing a degree in business administration from the Marshall School of Business and hopes to land a career in sports marketing. Her parents are Steve and Grace Reitzfeld. Her mother Grace is an administrator at USC.

Debbie Green

"Considered the best setter in the history of women's volleyball"

• Inducted to the Volleyball Hall of Fame (1995) and AVCA Hall of Fame (2004)

• Selected to the Volleyball magazine All-Time Indoor Team (1995)

• Named To USA Volleyball's 1978-2002 All-Era Team

• Led USC to 1976 and 1977 AIAW National Championship

• 1977 USC women's volleyball team was the first collegiate squad ever to go undefeated (38-0) and entire starting lineup earned All-America honors

• A two-time U.S. Olympian
Los Angeles, 1984 Moscow, 1980

• Coached for 23 years as women's volleyball assistant coach at Long Beach State and groomed four All-American setters during her tenure

1996

Patti Lucas-Bright

"A true USC great before women's volleyball was put on the map at Troy"

(1941-2004)

• Inducted to the Volleyball Hall of Fame (1996)

• Graduated from USC ('64) with a bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in English. Attended USC prior to 1976 – the first year volleyball was considered a scholarship sport

• A two-time U.S. Olympian
Mexico City, 1968
Tokyo, 1964

• Five-year women's volleyball head coach at Pepperdine (1973-77)

• Longtime high school volleyball coach

1998

Paula Weishoff

"Arguably the greatest middle blocker in women's volleyball history"

• Inducted to the Volleyball Hall of Fame (1998)

• Selected to the Volleyball magazine All-Time Indoor Team

• Named To USA Volleyball's 1978-2002 All-Era Team

• Led USC to 1980 AIAW National Championship

• Named MVP of the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain

• Only woman ever to be a member of three U.S. Women's Volleyball Olympic Teams:
Los Angeles, 1984
Seoul, 1988
Barcelona, 1992

• A 16-year member of the U.S. National team

• Current head coach at UC Irvine and former seven-year assistant coach for the Women of Troy

Volleyball Hall of Fame
1895
Holyoke, Massachusetts

2005

Lisa Love

"A long-time coach who is also a tremendous administrator and driving national force for the sport"

• Inducted to the AVCA Hall of Fame (2005)

• Compiled a 404-171 record in 17 seasons as head coach at the University of Texas at Arlington and was the AVCA Division I Coach of the Year in 1988

• Guided the USC program (1989-1998) to a 205-93 overall record while also serving as associate athletic director (1991-2001). She led USC to nine NCAA Tournament berths and eight finishes in the national top 15

• Served as AVCA president from 1997-98 and as the chair of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee. She worked on the AVCA All-America committee from 1987-89 and was a legislative representative to the AVCA Board from 1992-94. She was instrumental to the development and the direction of volleyball on a national scale

• Former Arizona State Director of Athletics

2006

Mick Haley

"An accomplished head coach with over 30 years of experience including four Division I national championships"

• Inducted to the AVCA Hall of Fame (2006)

• During his tenure at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., he recorded four national men's and two national women's titles

• In 17 seasons at Texas, he compiled a 522-137-1 record along with two national championships in 1981 and 1988. His titles were instrumental in expanding the sport to a national level in being the first non-West Coast team to win the title

• Served as the head coach for the U.S. Women's National Team (1997-2000), including a fourth-place finish at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia

• Added two more national championships to his resume with back-to-back titles (2003 and 2004) with USC. His 2003 squad finished 35-0 as he earned his third National Coach of the Year honor while also putting together an NCAA-record 52-match winning streak from 2002 to 2004

2006

Sue Woodstra

"One of USC's first All-Americans, she also was the U.S. team captain for the 1984 Olympics"

• Inducted to the AVCA Hall of Fame (2006)

• One of USC's first All-Americans, leading USC as an outside hitter to the 1977 AIAW Championship

• Captain for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team, which earned the silver medal in Los Angeles. She was selected as a USVBA All-Time Great in 1993 and was named to the USAV All-Era Team

• After her professional career, which included playing with the NEC Volleyball Team of the Japan League (1984-88), Woodstra turned to coaching with experience at the Division I and II levels. Currently, she is the head coach at Humboldt State University

• During the summer of 2007, she briefly left her Humboldt State position to serve as assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team through the 2008 Olympics in China

Charles "Chuck" Erbe

"The volleyball world is filled with hundreds of coaches and players which were influenced by Chuck"

• Inducted to the AVCA Hall of Fame (2013)

• USC's first women's volleyball head coach

• Amassed a collegiate record of 554-261-3 in 24 years split between USC (1976-88) and Michigan State (1993-2004)

• Led the Women of Troy to four national championships. Three AIAW (1976, '77, '80) and the first-ever NCAA championships in 1981. USC advanced to the AIAW or NCAA tournament in 11 of 12 years under Erbe

• His 1977 USC team was the first collegiate squad ever to go undefeated (38-0) and entire starting lineup earned All-America honors and was selected to the 1980 U.S. National Team

• Named the 1994 Big Ten, Volleyball Magazine, and AVCA National Coach of the Year

Volleyball Hall of Fame 1895 Holyoke, Massachusetts

Chuck Erbe's 1977 USC squad is regarded as one of the best teams ever assembled

2002 and 2003 National Championships

During the 2007 season, the USC women's volleyball program began to honor its "All-Time Greats" with permanent banners at the Galen Center.

Paula Weishoff and Debbie Green were the first Women of Troy former players to be recognized for their contributions, not only to USC, but also to the sport of women's volleyball.

The next players honored were: Debbie (Landreth) Brown and Sue Woodstra (2008), Cathy Stukel and Paula Dittmer-Goodwin (2009) and Terry Place and Dana Smith (2010).

Weishoff led USC to the 1980 national championship and is regarded by many as one of the greatest middle blockers in history. She was a 16-year member of the U.S. National Team and is the only woman to ever play on three U.S. Olympic Teams (Los Angeles in 1984, Seoul in 1988 and Barcelona in 1992).

Green has been recognized as one of the greatest setters in the sport. She was inducted into the Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1995, as well as the AVCA Hall of Fame in 2004. She led USC to its first national championships in 1976 and 1977. The 1977 squad was the first collegiate squad to go undefeated (38-0) as its entire starting lineup earned All-America honors.

Woodstra was one of USC's first All-Americans and a member of the 1977 national championship team. She was a two-time Olympian and was the team captain for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team.

Brown was a two-time All-American for USC and member of the 1976 and 1977 national championship squads, along with being named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team. She is currently the head coach at Notre Dame.

Dittmer-Goodwin was USC's first four-time All-American (1976, 1978, 1979 and 1980) as a setter while Stukel was also a four-time All-American for the Women of Troy (1978-1981) as a setter.

Place was a two-time All-American (1976 and 1977) and two-time Olympian (1980 and 1984).

Smith was a three-time All-American, playing for USC from 1980-83. She was a member of the 1981 and 1982 national championship squads and one of only four USC players in history to earn an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1984.

Volleyball Scoring History And Recent Rule Changes:

1976-1986
Tournament matches often decided in three games, while conference matches played to five games. All games played to 15 points and must be won by two points.

1987-2000
Matches played in a best three-out-of-five games to 15 points. Rally scoring used in game five.

2001
Rally scoring instituted in all games. Games 1-4 played to 30 points, while game 5 played to 15 points. Total points (kills + service aces + blocks) introduced as a statistical category.

2002
Libero position introduced (not allowed to serve or attack the ball). Liberos gain statistical advantage in digs.

2004
Libero allowed to serve.

2008
Games are now termed "sets" with sets 1-4 played to 25 points.

AIAW National Champions

Highlighting the 1976 Season

• With head coach Chuck Erbe in his first season at the helm of the USC women's volleyball program, the Women of Troy were ranked No. 1 by Volleyball Magazine in the preseason polls. They were selected to finish ahead of two-time national champion UCLA and 1975 runner-up Hawai'i.

• USC awarded scholarships for the first time in program history due to the advent of Title IX.

• Three freshmen (Terry Place, Paula Dittmer-Goodwin, Debbie Green) joined one sophomore transfer (1976 USVBA All-American Debbie Landreth) and three returning starters (Julie Morgan, Lori Jepsen, Linda Vivas) on the 1976 squad.

• Coach Erbe implemented one of the most demanding schedules in USC volleyball history. The team practiced seven days a week and played as many as three games a week. It was easily twice as much as any other collegiate volleyball program.

• Winning the tournament championship at the UCLA Invitational, USC setter Debbie Green and middle blocker Terry Place were named to the all-tournament team.

• During the regular season, the Trojans lost only one match, to crosstown rival UCLA at the WAIAW Regionals held at UC Davis. The loss forced the two teams to play a one-game playoff in order to advance to the AIAW Championships. USC defeated the Bruins, 15-8, to qualify.

• USC advanced to the national championships held Dec. 8-11 at the University of Texas.

First Rounds

• At the start of the tournament, USC was forced to play its first two matches without injured starters Paula Dittmer-Goodwin and Julie Morgan. Against Texas, the Trojans quickly jumped out to a 4-0 lead and never looked back, defeating the Longhorns, 15-1, 15-6, then routing Maryland, 15-1, 15-1. After the first day of competition, USC, UCLA, Pepperdine and Hawai'i were the only undefeated teams remaining. Upon Dittmer-Goodwin's return to the lineup, the Women of Troy defeated Michigan State, Eastern Kentucky and Arizona, by identical 2-0 scores.

Quarterfinals

• One day after first facing the Spartans, USC again defeated Michigan State, 15-10, 15-6, to advance to the semifinals.

Semifinals

• For the first time since the start of the championship tournament, USC was at full strength with Paula Dittmer-Goodwin and Julie Morgan healthy and back in the lineup. USC defeated Pepperdine, 15-3, 15-6, after tallying 12 unanswered points in the first game. Thus far, the Women of Troy had managed to beat every team in the tournament in two games.

Finals

• UCLA and USC advanced to the championship match and faced each other for the sixth time, as the Trojans looked to avenge their single loss of the season. USC gained a quick lead in the first game and with impenetrable blocking, solid defense and the quick-hitting of Paula Dittmer-Goodwin, they earned the 15-6 victory. In the second game, the Women of Troy jumped to a 3-0 lead, but the Bruins fought back to take a 13-9 advantage. The Trojans held them off and tied the score at 14 apiece but eventually surrendered the game, 14-16. Heading into the deciding game, USC relied on the efforts of Debbie Landreth and Julie Morgan, who blocked an attack by UCLA's Terry Condon for the final point of a 15-5 USC victory. The Women of Troy defeated the UCLA Bruins to be crowned 1976 AIAW National Champions.

AIAW National Champions

Bottom: Terry Place, Lynne Luedke, Star Clark, Carolyn Becker

Highlighting the 1977 Season

• With four returning starters from the 1976 national championship team, the addition of All-American candidates Star Clark, Sue Woodstra and Lynne Luedke, and the second-year leadership of head coach Chuck Erbe, USC was on its way to defending its national title in 1977.

• Volleyball Magazine ranked USC No. 1 in the preseason polls.

• The Women of Troy opened the season by easily defeating seventh-ranked UC Santa Barbara, 15-5, 15-3, 15-0. USC faced and defeated four Top 10 opponents throughout the season: No. 2 UCLA, No. 3 Hawai'i, No. 4 Pepperdine and UCSB.

• Besides defeating all their top-ranked opponents, the highlight proved to be a 7-15, 15-9, 17-15, 14-16, 15-12 victory over UCLA. The match was played in front of 3,753 fans - the largest crowd ever to assemble for a women's sporting event at UCLA. It was considered by many to be one of the most exciting sporting events of the year.

• Held at Long Beach State, the WAIAW Regionals featured UC Davis, UC Santa Barbara, UCLA and USC. The Trojans opened tournament play with a 2-0 victory over UC Davis, not allowing the Aggies to score a single point in the two-game match. With wins over UCSB and UCLA, the Women of Troy again defeated the Bruins, 15-2, 11-15, 15-13, 15-8, in the tournament final and advanced to the national championship as the No. 1 seed.

First Rounds

• The 1977 championship tournament was held at BYU. USC swept through the opening rounds with 2-0 victories over Houston, Illinois State, Mississippi, Kansas State and Arizona.

Quarterfinals

• Still dominating competition, the remaining rounds posed a greater challenge for the Trojans. The tournament format changed to a best of five series as USC defeated Illinois State, 15-1, 15-4, 15-2, to advance.

Semifinals

• One match away from the national title, the Trojans posted a 15-3, 15-8, 15-9 victory over host BYU in the semifinals. In the other bracket, UCLA was defeated by Hawai'i, preventing a rematch of the 1976 championship.

Finals

• The final match was a battle between Hawai'i and USC. The Rainbows were aware of their challenge and took the first lead, eventually earning a 15-12 victory in game one. This was the Women of Troy's first loss of a game in eight matches. The Trojans did not allow Hawai'i to ruin their impeccable mark, as they went on to win the next three games for the match victory and the 1977 AIAW National Title.

• With a 38-0 perfect record (34 victories won in sweeps), the Women of Troy recorded the first-ever perfect season in collegiate women's volleyball. Their accomplishment went unmatched until Long Beach State went 36-0 in 1998.

• USC's 38 wins were part of a winning streak which extended three seasons and 57 total victories.

• In his second season at Troy, and earning his second consecutive national title, Chuck Erbe was named Volleyball Coach of the Year.

• Five players went on to make the 1980 U.S.A. Olympic team: Debbie Landreth, Debbie Green, Sue Woodstra, Terry Place and Carolyn Becker.

1980

AIAW National Champions

Highlighting the 1980 Season

• On a team that featured no seniors and four junior returners, three-time All-American and 1979 conference MVP Cathy Stukel was responsible for leading this squad back to prominence. The young squad featured three top freshman, Paula Weishoff, Dana Smith and Iris McDonald, and one sophomore, Lori Uranich.

• To begin the season, Volleyball Magazine awarded the Women of Troy a No. 1 preseason rank.

• During the regular season, USC and second-ranked UCLA met six times as the Trojans prevailed with five victories. The most exciting was a four-game victory over the Bruins at the L.A. Sports Arena in front of a USC record crowd of 5,103 - the largest home attendance in program history.

• The Women of Troy collected three tournament titles at the Women's Games, San Diego State Invitational and Women's Collegiate Classic.

• Seeded No. 1 at the WAIAW Regionals held in Santa Barbara, Calif., the Trojans had their work cut out for them. Gone were the days of three-game sweeps. USC fought to earn four-game wins over Stanford, UCLA and Pacific, to advance to the finals. The final match was a USC-Pacific rematch that ended in a dramatic five-game victory for the Women of Troy. All eight teams from the regional were invited to the national championship.

First Rounds

• Cathy Stukel was sidelined at the start of the AIAW tournament after she injured her ankle at the UCLA Invitational. Junior Anna Maria Lopez also was out with an injury. However, the power hitting from the freshman trio (Weishoff, Smith, McDonald) helped USC advance to the quarters after sweeping Colorado State, Penn State, Houston and San Diego State in pool play.

Quarterfinals

• Their first round dominance carried over against Cal Poly San Luis Obispo as the Trojans posted a 15-11, 15-12, 15-9 win.

Semifinals

• After dropping the first game, 7-15, USC allowed Hawai'i to take a quick lead in game two of the semifinal match. But with Cathy Stukel back in the USC lineup, the Trojans pushed to tie the score at 13 apiece and began to take control of the match. USC eventually defeated the Rainbows, 3-1, and set up its return to the AIAW championship match and another meeting with Pacific.

Finals

• Anna Maria Lopez rejoined the lineup in this rematch of the WAIAW final, but Pacific did not pose as great a challenge as expected. After a come-from-behind effort to win game one, USC never looked back, sweeping the Tigers, 15-11, 15-8, 15-9. The Trojans' third national title was credited to Cathy Stukel's setting and Paula Weishoff's powerful hitting. Lori Uranich gave Pacific trouble on the left side and Iris McDonald's serves kept the Tigers off balance as the Women of Troy were crowned the 1980 AIAW National Champions.

1980 All-Americans

Paula Dittmer-Goodwin, Cathy Stukel, Paula Weishoff

• Cathy Stukel was named conference MVP. Paula Weishoff and Stukel each earned all-conference first team honors, while Anna Maria Lopez and Iris McDonald were named to the second team.

Highlighting the 1981 Season

• The 1981 season brought many changes for USC and the world of women's collegiate volleyball. Women's volleyball entered its first year as an NCAA sanctioned sport and the Trojans were after their fourth national title and first NCAA crown.

• The health of key players, especially three-time All-American Cathy Stukel, was a major concern for USC head coach Chuck Erbe. He had stated before the season that the 1981 Trojans did not figure to be as overpowering as his past teams largely due to the loss of Paula Weishoff and Iris McDonald.

• The Women of Troy displayed a new look as they returned to pressure defense and worked to become more of a finesse team.

• Volleyball Magazine ranked USC No. 3 at the start of the season with seven first place votes.

• With another demanding schedule, the Trojans struggled, placing no higher than fourth at three of the most prestigious tournaments of the season and finishing third in the WCAA.

• USC was selected to compete in the first-ever NCAA postseason tournament. Seeded eighth, the Trojans received a first round bye.

Regionals

• At the inaugural Northwest Regional tournament, USC defeated Arizona, 3-0, in the first round, then went on to upset top-ranked Hawai'i, 15-12, 15-4, 11-15, 15-5, in the regional final to advance to the 1981 NCAA Final Four. Hawai'i had only lost one match prior to entering the tournament. USC's victory was largely due to the efforts of outside hitter Dana Smith, who had 12 kills.

NCAA Final Four

• UCLA hosted the first-ever NCAA women's volleyball Final Four, featuring San Diego State, Pacific, UCLA and USC at Pauley Pavilion. In the first match, the Women of Troy faced No. 4 Pacific, an equally young and talented team.

• Eighth-ranked USC posted its second tournament upset with a five-game victory over the Tigers. In a match that seemed to last forever, the Trojans built a 10-5 lead in the deciding game and managed to hold off Pacific even after the Tigers rallied to come within one point (11-10). UCLA defeated San Diego State, 3-1, to advance to the championship match.

NCAA Championship Final

• The championship match drew a record-breaking crowd of 6,289 to witness two of the most dominant teams in women's volleyball.

• UCLA, which opened an 8-1 lead in the first game, earned the 15-9 win to start the match. The Trojans did not remain quiet for long, reversing the tables for a 15-12 win in the second game. In game three, the teams tied the score six times and exchanged leads four times, before the Bruins got away with a 15-10 decision on two final service aces.

• The turning point in the match came in game four. After the Bruins grabbed a 9-8 lead, the teams fought through 11 straight sideouts without a point. The Women of Troy tied the score at nine apiece, then after four sideouts, USC claimed a 15-13 win.

• After halting UCLA's momentum, USC jumped to an 8-1 lead and held off a Bruin 8-6 rally to post a final 15-7 victory in the fifth game, earning the first-ever women's volleyball NCAA Championship.

• USC became the first-ever women's team to win four national championships.

1981 All-Americans

Dana Smith, Cathy Stukel

• Stukel was named the NCAA MVP, while both she and Smith were honored as all-tournament selections.

Highlighting the 2002 Season

• Following a disappointing finish to the 2001 season, the 2002 USC women's volleyball team was more determined than ever to get back to the Final Four and compete for the national title.

• The Women of Troy's starting lineup boasted two All-American honorees (April Ross and Katie Olsovsky) and five-of-six returning starters. Thanks to its two outstanding setters (Tracy Lindquist and Toni Anderson), the Trojans were able to run a 6-2 system.

• The success of the 2002 squad was also much attributed to a complete team effort thanks to the leadership of three seniors - Lauren Killian (captain), Julie Mariani and Lindquist.

• Ranked No. 2 at the start of the season by the AVCA, USC climbed its way to the No. 1 spot by the third week after defeating top 10 opponents such as Nebraska and Florida.

• The Women of Troy won 19 straight matches to start the season, including a thrilling five-game road victory over defending national champion Stanford. The following night, USC defeated Cal to give head coach Mick Haley his 800th career victory.

• The win streak came to an end on Nov. 2 when the Cardinal avenged the earlier loss, defeating the Trojans at home in another outstanding five game match. This would mark USC's only loss of the season.

• For the first time, USC clinched sole possession of the Pac-10 title with a 17-1 conference record.

Regionals

• As the top seed in the West Region, the Trojans hosted San Diego and Texas A&M in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, sweeping both teams to advance.

• The West Regional was held at Santa Barbara and, in a similar manner, the Trojans defeated Michigan State and Pepperdine both by 3-0 scores. Emily Adams and Olsovsky were named to the all-tournament team. Ross was named MVP.

NCAA Final Four

• Set in New Orleans, La., the 2002 Final Four featured Florida, Hawai'i, Stanford and USC.

• Even though the Trojans had faced Florida early in the season, the Gators had been without key starter Aury Cruz so the semifinal match-up was bound to be more difficult.

• The Gators came out firing and took the first game 30-24, but the Women of Troy regained their composure and finished off the match in four games to advance to the finals for the first time since 1982.

NCAA Championship Final

• With a 3-1 win over Florida in its semifinals, Stanford was set to face the Women of Troy for the third time in 2002.

• The teams could not have been more evenly matched after meeting twice during the Pac-10 season and each winning with a five-game effort on the other's court. It was the fifth all Pac-10 final since 1992.

• USC managed to hold off the efforts of Stanford's Ogonna Nnamani and Logan Tom, who accounted for 19 and 16 kills apiece. With a balanced offensive attack and excellent defense (thanks to the performance of libero Nicole Davis), the Women of Troy defeated the Cardinal 30-27, 23-30, 30-24, 30-26 to end a 20-year drought with the 2002 NCAA Championship.

• Olsovsky led the Trojan attack with a match-best 16 kills (including the final point). Burdine and Ross each added 15 kills and Adams contributed 12 kills for the Trojans. Burdine also had a match-high 15 digs and was named NCAA Championship MVP.

2002 All-Americans

Emily Adams, April Ross

• Four players (Ross, Adams, Olsovsky and Burdine) were named to the All-Pac-10 first team and AVCA All-Pacific Region teams.

Highlighting the 2003 Season

• With a team considered by many as one of the greatest of all time, the Women of Troy successfully defended their national and conference crowns with a perfect 35-0 overall record. The Trojans became only the fourth team to go undefeated en route to a title and the only team to ever do so as a repeat champion.

• USC set a NCAA record by winning 47 consecutive matches dating back to Nov. 2, 2002.

• Five seniors – April Ross, Katie Olsovsky, Toni Anderson, Nicole Davis and Kelli Lantz -- completed their USC careers among the best of all time. In four years, these five players guided the Women of Troy to two national championships, three conference titles, three Final Four appearances, four top-5 rankings and a combined 119-8 record for a 93.7 win percentage.

• Team co-captain April Ross became USC's first-ever Pac-10 Player of the Year (and second-ever conference Player of the Year) and was honored with the Honda Award, given annually to the nation's top female volleyball player.

• USC entered 2003 as the preseason No. 1 and heavy favorite to repeat thanks to a starting lineup that remained completely intact. With arguably the nation's toughest schedule, the Trojans played 17 matches against ranked opponents and faced 13 opponents in the top 10.

• Cal gave USC its greatest test on Oct. 18 when it pushed the Women of Troy to five games. It was the only five-game match the Women of Troy would play all season. The Trojans lost only eight single games throughout the year.

Regionals

• The Women of Troy earned the top seed in the NCAA Tournament. Hosting the first two rounds of play, they eased past New Hampshire and Loyola Marymount, each by 3-0 scores.

• Despite the No. 1 seed, USC was shipped to the Central Regional in Lincoln, Neb., for the following two rounds. In the regional semifinal and final, the Women of Troy faced familiar foes, defeating No. 16 Texas A&M, 3-0, and No. 8 UCLA, 3-1.

NCAA Final Four

• The stage was set as Hawai'i, Florida, Minnesota and USC headed to Dallas, Texas, for the Final Four at Reunion Arena.

• USC faced Minnesota in the semifinals on Dec. 18. Sluggish at the start, the Trojans struggled to win the first two games of the match and had to score the final three points of the second game after the Gophers led most of the way. By game three, the Women of Troy had found their stride and put Minnesota away with an 18-4 run to seal the 3-0 victory.

NCAA Championship Final

• Ironically, USC's season was destined to end the way it began – against the third-seeded Florida Gators in the NCAA Championship Final.

• The Gators came out swinging, and stunned the Women of Troy by taking the first game, 30-25. But that was all the encouragement the Trojans needed. Just as they had done against every other opponent during the regular season, the Women of Troy found a way to win. USC relied on the strength of its defense to combat Florida's best offensive efforts.

• USC's backrow play frustrated the Gators, while Ross, Candelas and Burdine tallied points at the net. Ross and Candelas were honored to the NCAA Championship all-tournament team, while Burdine earned her second-straight NCAA MVP honor.

• A final 3-1 decision gave USC its second-straight title and was a perfect ending to a perfect season!

2003 All-Americans

First Team – Emily Adams, April Ross, Bibiana Candelas; Second Team – Keao Burdine

• An unprecedented four USC players were named to the AVCA All-America first and second teams, and a record eight earned all-conference accolades (including five first team selections).

• Head coach Mick Haley was named the 2003 AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year.
